Customer Reviews

No matter how rich or poor you are, handmade gifts are always welcome from someone. The giftee knows the love and care that went into a present. This book is full of wonderful gift ideas. There are beverages such as "cranberry apple cider", "Pretty in Pink Cocoa Mix", and "Toffee Coffee Fun Mix", to name a few. There are also breakfast mixes that range from coffee cake to gingerbread pancake mixes. Cosmetic scrubs and toners are included, snack mixes, dinner mixes, and so very much more. There even "Pre-baked gifts in jars"! (Yes you can bake in jars!) All of the recipes and directions for assembling or using each gift jar is included to be put on a hang tag and attached. I have several gifts in jars type of books, but this one is at the top of my list. Victoria Lane has taken time to explain steps and to remind gifters to double check with the giftee to be sure that there are no allergies or objections to ingredients. (Someone might be allergic to or dislike nuts, for instance.) No pictures of each recipe, but the recipes are easy to follow. This book calls for mixing most ingredients vs layering them in each jar. It is a good book. The one thing I note that is missing is the jar size for each recipe. A notation regarding which size jars to purchase before beginning to assemble my ingredients. I am used to eyeballing a recipe and knowing which jar it will fit into, but I have been making gifts in jars for several years.

I like this book, the ideas are cool. However there are a few things that keep this from being 4 or 5 stars. 1) the amount of obvious typos throughout the book is just too much. It's like nobody bothered to read through it before it was published. Sometimes it's obvious what word is incorrect (autocorrect?) Or missing, others not so much. Not very professional. 2) this book needs pictures. It talks about making everything pretty, it would be nice to have pictures of examples. Especially for the baked ones, so you can make sure it looks a right.

This book is full of awesome ideas that are sure to set you on the right path in your gift giving adventures. There is something for everyone. A must have book if you enjoy creating thoughtful handmade gifts versus buying something anyone can get. A must read. Get your copy today. Always good to have an idea when those unexpected birthdays or occasions show up on you.

Great book, great ideas. Lots of helpful hints. Keep this book handy when there is someone on your list that is hard to buy for. Who doesn't like something homemade.

There is an abundance of recipes. I will use several for gifts this year. Directions are included with each recipe.
