Customer Reviews

With so many parents on the go, it's nice that more cookbook authors are writing "make ahead" meals. My only drawback is that I wish the recipes were less time consuming to prepare ahead. Each one takes about an hour to prepare. That would take all afternoon on a weekend, plus shopping, if you were making dinners for an entire work week. In theory, that may be ok; but, it's not realistic. This cookbook has some scrumptious recipes. The Bean, Spinach and Quinoa Burritos were very good. Can't wait to try the Eggplant Lasagna!

excellent way to save time and not spend as much time cooking and more time with the ones you are cooking for. this recipes are so simple and delicious and my family loves them. i couldn't be happier.

This cookbook saves you so much time and gives you so much more time outside of the kitchen. Easy to do recipes that you can prepare ahead of time to have ready to go when it's dinner time. Simple delicious meals. It's great

some good some bad
