Customer Reviews

This book is honestly one of the best companions and should be in any Teddy Bear collectors library. The level of knowledge and personal references made by the author truly tell an enjoyable tale. An analysis of companies and makers allows for easy reference with a personal story tied to each one. When you read this book, you instantly feel the connection between human and teddy bear and it brings quite a lot of warmth to your heart. I myself have read this book four times and each time enjoyed it more than the rest. I would recommend this book to any lover of teddy bears, bear collectors or just someone who likes to read heart warming tales. If you love teddy bears more than this book is for you.

I don't know if it's just bad layout or if there are photos missing, but the Kindle version has huge big gaps throughout and very few photos. The text is nice, but the book would be 100 times better if there were more photos. Those that are there are wonderful - but I wanted more ...
