Customer Reviews

I sincerely hope others who are wanting to make their own lotion but were cautious to try will read this book...I'm sure there will be many making their own lotions soon after reading. A very good start for us beginners. It is absolutely amazing and perfect book for anyone who would like to start a new hobby, to switch to organic and homemade products, or to start a new and profitable business! It's extremely helpful and interesting,

I stumbled across this book and I'm glad that I did because my wife is crazy about natural, organic products. She has tried a few recipes from this book and they turned out really good. I really loved the smell of the Minty Summer lotion! The book was also very well formatted, which is something I look for in recipe books. I recommend this to people who want to take care of their skin using natural products.

This is a recipe book for body and skin lotions made from natural ingredients. It is much like a cookbook although the recipes are used to create lotions to nourish the body and skin rather than to eat. The author decries the high cost of commercial lotions, butters, and creams, many of which have negative side effects. She encourages the reader to prepare their own body and skin care lotions using natural ingredients to save money and make lotions that are healthier and without side effects. The book has a brief introduction followed by 50 lotion recipes. Each recipe is composed of a description, list of ingredients, and step-by-step directions. As an example, the ingredients in a homemade lotion called "Seductive Vanilla Lotion" are olive oil, beeswax, coconut oil, cocoa butter, vitamin E oil, and vanilla extract. The following is a sampling of other lotion recipes:

Seductive Vanilla, Smooth Clay, Sun Blocking, Natural Sunscreen, Combing Lavender, Rosie Shea, Aloe Vera, Coconut Tea, Non-Greasy Cocoa, Creamy Chamomile, Minty Summer, Eczema Fighter, Creamy Coconut, Wild Rosy.

I passed this to my mum and she was rather amazed at the recipes and their effects. Although she/we did not manage to try all if not a handful of them, it was still a good bonding experience and a rather effective way to relief stress and take time off from our hectic lives. The lotions work as they provide a blend of different properties from a variety of ingredients.

I love going to spa but we should admit that spa treatments are expensive. The book is a perfect match for me because with homemade lotion I can at least pamper myself with a spa like session in my own house. The ingredients are easy to find and the mixtures are easy to prepare. I like how it discussed the steps in a simple way that everybody can understand.

Good book. Great Book. Lots of valuable information for a new do it yourselfer. I love to learn new things and this is something that I really want to learn more about. I want to stop using chemicals and getting more into natural ingredients.

These are really incredible lotion recipes. I always buy these books on a free promotion as I hate using the store bought products which cost lost of money and have tons of chemicals. Try the cinnamon and vanilla oil- it's out of this world!

Really unique and helpful content in this one! I've had problems with my skin ever since puberty and this really did the trick with my sensitive skin. Lotion recipes are great and very useful, easy to make. I thoroughly enjoyed reading the book as this is loaded with some amazing information about making organic lotions that can be made at home which is useful for all types of skin. The book is written very well. Organic and natural products are always healthy for skin the author has suggested many tips to keep our skin hydrated and glowing. Overall a great read and highly recommended one!!!!
