Catholic Social Teaching: Christian Life in Society has been submitted to the Subcommittee on the Catechism, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Declarations of conformity with both the Catechism of the Catholic Church and Doctrinal Elements of a Curriculum Framework for the Development of Catechetical Materials for Young People of High School Age are pending. Catholic Social Teaching: Christian Life in Society This course will guide students in exploring and understanding the social teachings of the Church. It will address the major themes of Catholic social teaching and what they express about God’s plan for all people and our obligations to care for one another, especially those most in need in society. The course will work to move students to a life of service and work for the Kingdom of God.

The Living in Christ Series makes the most of the wisdom and experience of Catholic high school teachers as they empower and guide students to participate in their own learning. Engages students’ intellect and responds to their natural desire to know God. Encourages faith in action through carefully-crafted learning objectives, lessons, activities, active learning, and summative projects that address multiple learning styles.

This is a school textbook. It was required in class, not a book that you would read just for fun.

Very interesting book. My son needed for school but I decided to read it. I am happy that I did. Open my mind to some things.

Good book required by the school. Received on a timely manner.

It's super repetitive. Every chapter is almost the same. It's very anti-constructive and not engaging which doesn't improve the already boring atmosphere of a religion class.

Very happy with this item. Just as I expected.

Arrived in very good condition.

It's good
